Insolvency and Reconstruction

Our insolvency and reconstruction team act for secured and unsecured creditors, administrators, liquidators and other insolvency practitioners across a range of industry sectors and have advised on a number of high profile and complex insolvencies. We also advise boards and company directors on all aspects of insolvency law.

In addition, we act for individuals and Trustees in personal bankruptcy matters.

We have long standing relationships with a number of Australia's leading insolvency practitioners and are sought out by our clients for the commercial and strategic approach that we bring to their work.

Our expertise and experience

We have extensive experience in all areas of insolvency and reconstruction including:

- Early diagnosis and advice on legal issues affecting solvency
- Restructuring and workout solutions for companies in financial distress
- The preparation of deeds of company arrangement, schemes of arrangement and other informal arrangements
- Acting for administrators, liquidators and receivers on all aspects of their appointments

- acting for secured and unsecured creditors in enforcement and recovery actions
- Advising individuals and Trustees on personal bankruptcy matters
- All forms of insolvency related litigation and dispute resolution.

Specialist litigation funding experience

We also have specialist experience in litigation funded work and regularly assist insolvency practitioners to both assess whether potential claims are fundable and obtain funding through our connections with the major and private litigation funders.

Our insolvency specialists are members of the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia and are recognised leaders in their field.
